

1. 3-bedroom	(compound adjective) that has 3 bedrooms They will visit one ___ flat this morning and two ___ houses this afternoon.	12. a fee	(noun) a sum you pay for a service ; a commission ; a charge They were charged a hefty ___ for smoking in a non-smoking area.
2. accommodations	(noun -usually plural) a place of residence ; lodging ; a place to stay or to live in. Sweepstakes winners will enjoy a week-long stay in luxury ___ in Las Vegas.	13. a flat	(noun) an apartment (US); a division of a building designed for living If the ___ is overlooking the main road, a very effective way to curb noise is through double glazing.
3. an appliance	(noun) a piece of domestic equipment, like a stove, a dish-washer or a refrigerator Darty and Conforama stock a wide range of kitchen ___s.	14. flat mates	(noun) roommates (US) ; roomies (fam.) ; the people you share your apartment with My friends and I are moving into our new flat next week. I'm really looking forward to having ___ again!
4. available	(adjective) ready for use; accessible now Voice mail: I'm sorry but I am not ___ at the moment, please leave a message after the beep.	15. furnished	(verb) equipped with furniture (the movable things in a house) Though there's a difference in price between an empty apartment and a fully ___ one, the location is usually a more important factor.
5. boring	(adjective) unpleasant; tedious; tiring ; not interesting The movie was so ___ I fell asleep.	16. furniture	(noun) (uncountable; false friend) the movable things in a house, like tables, chairs, cabinets... Jane has always been fond of old mahogany ___ so she was ecstatic when Mother gave her Grandmother's old bookshelf.
6. close to	(prepositional phrase) in proximity of; the opposite of far from The university is not too ___ the train station but it's a lovely walk that the students don't mind the trek.	17. a good neighborhood	(noun) a nice area; a safe district Living in a ___ means paying more on rent, but you know what, it's totally worth it
7. couch potato	(noun) a person who spends most of his/her time watching tv I would like to go out dancing but my husband is a ___ and prefers Netflix.	18. a habit	(false friend) a routine; something you do regularly I have the very bad ___ of adding salt to my food.
8. a deposit	(noun) a sum of money you give as a guarantee when you start renting an apartment (also known as a bond in Australia and New Zealand) Most of the time, even if you can rent an apartment right away, it's usually more difficult because the ___ is so high.	19. hardly	(adverb) almost never, very rarely The instructions are printed so small I can ___ read them.
9. due	(adjective) expected to be ready; scheduled; having reached the date for payment The results are ___ at the end of the month.	20. home body	(noun) a person who prefers to stay home, who enjoys the comforts of home and is sometimes considered unadventurous Not all computer engineers are anti-social; some are just ___.
10. an early riser	(noun collocation) someone who gets up early He was an ___ and he would be at the breakfast table at seven.	21. the landlord	(noun) the owner ; the proprietor, person who is the owner of a place that can be rented out The ___ has very graciously accepted to fully renovate the apartment for the older tenants.
11. easy-going	(adjective) relaxed, laidback, chilled Hello, my name is Tom, I am friendly, clean, ___ and I am looking for a flat-share near the Campus.	22. a lease	(noun) a rental contract ; an agreement signed by the owner and the tenant We signed a three-year ___ when we moved into the house.

23. located	(adjective) to be established; to be set; to be situated The three theatres are ___ in the centre of town.	37. shy	(adjective) introverted; bashful; timid He was too ___ to ask her to dance with him.
24. a location	(noun) (false friend) a place; an area; a scene; a venue Croatia was the ideal ___ to shoot the scenes from King's Landing.	38. storage	(noun uncountable) space where things can be put away, like closets (US) or built-in wardrobes (UK) He is building some cupboards to give us more ___ space.
25. messy	(adjective) disorganized; careless; untidy His bedroom's always ___.	39. a tenant	(noun) the occupant of a rented apartment ; a person who leases a place ; a leaseholder; boarder, renter I'm a ___ not the landlord! I refuse to pay for the lousy plumbing in the apartment
26. neurotic	(adjective) a compulsive or obsessive behavior, a person who behaves strangely or in an anxious (= worried and nervous) way, often because you have a mental illness She's ___ about her weight - she weighs herself three times a day.	40. tidy	(adjective) clean, organized, neat The children kept the house very ___ while we were away for the weekend.
27. a night owl	(informal) someone who often stays up late at night My wife's a ___, but I like to be in bed by 10 o'clock.	41. to allow	(verb) to give permission; to approve; to authorize Do you think Dad will ___ you to go to Jamie's party?
28. a non-smoker	(noun) someone who does not smoke Do you want a cigarette? No, thank you I am a ___!	42. to come over	(verb/ phrasal verb) to visit informally ; to go to someone's place, also to move towards someone My Grandma shouted with joy when we told her that we were ___ing ___.
29. outgoing	open; friendly; demonstrative Sherry is a very ___ person, she will talk to everyone in the room.	43. to live	(verb) to inhabit; to reside Some people find ___ing in the city to be quite stressful so they are seriously considering moving to the country.
30. a party animal	(noun/informal) someone who likes to go out a lot and have fun Sarah's a real ___ - she likes to dance all night	44. to move in	(verb/phrasal verb) to settle into a new apartment, to share a place Our boys may have ___ed ___ together in a flat of their own but they still keep coming over to our's for dinner most nights.
31. a pet	(noun) a domesticated animal; usually a cat or a dog What sort of ___ would you recommend for my 75 years old mum?	45. to move out	(verb/phrasal verb) to leave an apartment for good Our next-door neighbour has finally ___ed ___ of his apartment due to the constant noise of traffic.
32. reliable	(adjective) trustworthy; dependable; honest; stable A great deal of effort has gone into making the software ___.	46. to provide	(verb) to make available; to supply; to equip The hotel ___s a playroom for children.
33. a rent	(noun) a sum of money you pay when leasing an apartment, If you had a choice, would you rather pay ___ or buy an apartment?	47. to share	(verb) to use in common with others; to split; to take part of Jane always ___s her toys with her little brother.
34. a rental	(noun) something that is rented; an object or a place you pay money to use Hertz is one of the largest car ___ companies in the world.	48. to skim through	(verb/ phrasal verb) to read something hurriedly without being attached to details In the TOEIC test, you won't have time to read part 7 word for word, so my advice would be to quickly ___ it and identify the key words.
35. roomie	(noun) (informal) roommates (US) ; flatmate (UK) ; the people you share your apartment with Jack and Sam were ___ in college and have been close ever since.	49. to stay	(verb) to visit; to live temporarily; to be accommodated When they visit the South of France they normally ___ in a farm on the outskirts of the city center.
36. seeking	(present participle of To Seek) looking for; in search of Many single people are ___ that special someone.	50. to suit	(verb) to fit; to be a good match; to correspond The city lifestyle seems to ___ her - she looks great