

1. ability	(noun) faculty, capacity; possession of the qualities required to do something; necessary skill, competence, or power "He had remarkable ___ as a musician."	11. confident	(adj) having strong belief; sure; certain; self-assured "The boss was ___ that the venture would be profitable."
2. actual	(adj) existing in reality "The ___ damages were less than first reported."	12. a disability	(noun) a handicap, an impairment; a physical or mental condition that significantly limits a person's motor, sensory, or cognitive abilities. "Many deaf and hard of hearing people object to the use of the phrase hearing ___."
3. an actuator	(noun) a mechanism that supplies and transmits a measured amount of energy for the operation of another mechanism or system. "While sensors make conversions between different forms of energy, ___s make a conversion from one form of energy to a mechanical movement"	13. due to	(prep phrase) As a result of something. "___ the impending thunderstorms, the baseball game has been canceled."
4. awkward	(adj) delicate, unpleasant, uncomfortable ; lacking grace in ease, movement or social manners "After an ___ silence, she glanced up at him with a smile."	14. from ___ down	(prep phrase) everything below a point "I couldn't feel anything ___ the knee ___."
5. badly	(adv) in a bad manner. "He was ___ injured in the fall."	15. a good chance	(noun phrase) a high probability; a very likely occurrence "There's ___ that our refrigerator is going to die soon, so we might as well get a new one."
6. beyond	(prep) on the far side of; past "The ball landed just ___ the fence."	16. injury	(noun) hurt, suffering; physical harm or damage to a part of one's body (or feelings). "She suffered an ___ to her back"
7. a bolt	 (noun) A fastener consisting of a threaded pin or rod with a head at one end, designed to be inserted through holes in assembled parts and secured by a mated nut that is tightened by applying torque.	17. an issue	(noun) a point or matter of discussion, debate, or dispute; a problem or difficulty. "What legal and moral ___s should we consider?"
8. both	(adv) one and the other, the two "___ of my parents quit smoking last month."	18. a joint	(noun) a place or part at which two or more things are joined. "The shoulders, elbows, wrists, hips, knees and ankles are ___s."
9. the central nervous system	(noun phrase) the portion of the vertebrate nervous system consisting of the brain and spinal cord. "The ___ controls most functions of the body and mind."	19. likely	(adj) within the realm of credibility; plausible "This story about your sick grandmother is not a very ___ excuse."
10. a command	(noun) an order given by someone in authority; an instruction to a computer "We obeyed his ___."	20. a limb	(noun) one of the jointed appendages of an animal, such as an arm, leg, wing, or flipper, used for locomotion or grasping. "When I touch and move my synthetic ___s, I do not experience normal touch and movement sensations."

21. a nut

(noun) A small block of metal or wood with a central, threaded hole that is designed to fit around and secure a bolt or screw.

22. a pattern	(noun) A consistent, characteristic form, style, or method; traits or features characteristic of an individual, a group or a construct "I like the ___ on this wallpaper."
23. a problem	(noun) a question to be considered, solved, or answered; a situation, matter, or person that is hard to deal with or understand "They discussed the ___ of bullying in schools."
24. profound	(adj) deep, intense; (of a subject or idea) demanding deep study or thought "It is hard to express ___ truths in simple language"
25. a pulse	(noun) a rhythm, a beat, a pulsation; any of a series of intermittent occurrences characterized by a brief sudden change in a quantity. "I'm going to take your ___," said the doctor, pressing his wrist."
26. rather	(adv) to a certain extent; somewhat "It's ___ cold out."
27. a sensor	(noun) a device that detects and responds to a signal or stimulus "A smoke alarm is an essential ___ in case of fire."
28. a surgeon	(noun) a doctor who treats injuries or diseases by operations in which the body sometimes has to be cut open "The workplace of a ___ is primarily in the operating room."
29. a surgery	(noun) an operation, a surgical procedure; a treatment typically involving the removal or replacement of diseased tissue by cutting. "The athlete had ___ on his knee."
30. synthetic	(adj) formed through a chemical process by human intervention not of natural origin "This dress is in nylon or another ___ material."

31. to climb	to go up; ascend "I always wanted to ___ this mountain;now it's done."
32. to comfort	(verb) to make feel better; to ease the grief or distress of someone; to improve the mood of or restore a sense of physical well-being to someone. "The victim was ___ed by friends before being taken to hospital"
33. to consider	(verb) to examine, to study; to think carefully about (something), typically before making a decision. "Each application is ___ed on its merits"
34. to control	(verb) to command, direct, or rule "The pilot finally regained ___ of the plane."
35. to design	(verb) to create, devise, or plan something for someone or something. "I asked our top graphic artist to ___ the visual component for this ad campaign."
36. to discuss	(verb) to consider or examine in speech or writing "The author ___es about the different aspects of this question"
37. to enhance	(verb) To improve or augment, especially in effectiveness, value, or attractiveness. "This exercise ___s cardiovascular health"
38. to experience	(verb) to participate in, to experiment, to feel, to go through; to have firsthand knowledge of states, situations, emotions, or sensation "The whole region ___ed the effects of the recession."
39. to extend	(verb) to cause something to be longer, wider, or cover more area "They ___ed the subway line into the next town."
40. to link	(verb) to connect, to attach, to associate "The police think she is ___ed to the murder."
41. to make a request	(verb phrase) to ask for, to solicit, to demand. "We __ an immediate __ for help."
42. to make up one's mind	(verb phrase) to make a final decision after a period of consideration. "I've __my__, and I think we should move after all."
43. to offer help	(verb phrase) to propose assistance "When he saw I was lost with the physics exercises, Tom ___ed ___."
44. a topic	(noun) the subject of a speech, essay, thesis, or discourse. "He didn't want to discuss that very sensitive ___."

45. to stretch	(verb) to draw out, to extend; to occupy a large, elongated area; to extend one's limbs or muscles, or the entire body; "___ your legs! Extend your right arm above your head..."
46. to take a look at	(verb phrase) to glance or look at someone or something, especially in a quick, informal, or nonchalant manner. "Hey, Barry, come ___ this engine and see if you can tell what's wrong with it"
47. unable	(adj) lacking the necessary power, ability, or authority to do something; not able "Unfortunately, he was ___ to come to his daughter's wedding."
48. uncomfortable	(adj) not comfortable; feeling or causing discomfort or unease; disquieting "He looked ___ when she mentioned marriage"
49. unnatural	(adj) not in accordance with what usually occurs in nature "Her arm was twisted into an ___ position."
50. upset	(adj) unhappy, disappointed, or worried. "She looked pale and ___"