

1. an action	(noun) something that a person does; a physical movement; an activity. I like movies with a lot of ____.	14. a game show	(noun) a television program on which contestants compete for prizes in a game (such as a quiz). "Who wants to be a millionaire" is a very popular ____.
2. afraid	(Adjective) feeling fear, or feeling anxiety about the possible results of a particular situation. Melissa is ____ of flying, so she takes a train from Boston to visit her brother in Chicago.	15. a hack	(noun) a good solution or piece of advice. Here are 50 life ____s that will change your life for the better.
3. annoyed	(adjective) feeling slightly angry or impatient. My parents were rather ____ (that) I hadn't told them about the accident	16. a hoop	(noun) a ring of wood, metal, or plastic. The dogs had been trained to jump through ____s.
4. available	(adjective) able to be obtained, used, or reached. If my wife calls, tell her that I am not ____ at the moment	17. a host	(a noun) someone who has guests; master of ceremonies. All the guests arrived at the White House and were greeted by a very special ____: the president of USA himself!
5. a blindfold	(noun) Bands, straps and strips, a strip of cloth that covers someone's eyes and stops them from seeing. Kids love Colin Maillard game because they have to cover their eyes with a ____.	18. an immunity	(noun) a situation in which you are protected against disease or from legal action; a protection. The vaccination gives you ____ against the disease for up to six months.
6. a cipher	(noun) code, encrypted message, a system of writing that prevents most people from understanding the message. The message was written in ____.	19. a labyrinth	(noun) a confusing and complicated arrangement of passages. We eventually realized that we were lost in the ____of hallways in the museum
7. a clue	(noun) a sign or some information that helps you to find the answer to a problem, question, or mystery. Police are still looking for ____s in their search for the missing girl.	20. length	(noun) the measurement of something from end to end or along its longest side. The ____ of the bay is approximately 200 miles.
8. a crew	(noun) a group of people with a particular skill who work together. The jet crashed soon after take-off, killing all the passengers and ____.	21. a maze	(noun) connected paths separated by tall bushes; small streets where you can get lost He felt like a rat in a ____.
9. critically	(adverb) badly, in a way that is very bad or serious, severe. They were both ____ injured in the accident	22. a mistake	(noun) an action, decision, or judgment that produces an unwanted or unintentional result My biggest ____ was to put my trust in you.
10. curious	(adjective) Asking a lot of questions and wanting to know things. I am just ____ to know how you two met	23. a narrator	(noun) the character who tells you what is happening in a book or film; story teller. This ____ is very famous, his voice is used in so many movies
11. DIY	(abbreviation for Do-It-Yourself) the activity of decorating or repairing your home ; making things for your home yourself. Leroy Merlin is a ____ shop	24. an obstacle course	(noun) a series of objects that people or animals in a race have to jump or climb over, go around, go under, etc. ; a military training course. I like ____s but I hate running in the mud.
12. an escape	(noun) an act of avoiding or getting away from a person, place, or bad situation. During the accident he had a very lucky ____ and not even one broken bone.	25. a phrasal verb	(Grammatical term) a two-word combination where the "preposition-like" word (called a particle) modifies the verb. I can't find my mobile phone and I would like to find out who took it! I'll take my car tomorrow if I take my fiancé out for dinner.
13. experience	(noun) the knowledge or skill from doing, seeing, or feeling things. I think she has the right ____ for the job

26. pitfalls	(noun) an unexpected danger ; a difficulty; a trap. During an excursion in the jungle, he fell in a ____ and broke his leg
27. pride	(noun) a feeling of pleasure and satisfaction that you get when you, or someone connected with you, have achieved something special. You could see the ____ in her eyes when the teacher talked about her students' TOEIC results.
28. a process	(noun) a series of things that happen and have a particular result Learning a language is a slow ____.
29. a puzzle	(noun) mystery; problem; enigma; a situation that is difficult to understand. Scientists have been trying to solve this ____ for years.
30. rocky	(adjective) unsteady/ uncertain. After two months in a hospital bed, I felt a bit ____ on my feet
31. searching	(Adjective) intending to discover the hidden truth about someone or something in a determined way. I think we need to ask some ____ questions about how the money has been spent
32. to ban	(verb) to say officially that people must not do, sell, or use something, to refuse permission, to not allow something. The book was ____ed from school libraries.
33. to craft	(verb) to make objects, especially in a skilled way, to create. This workshop will teach me how to ____ wood and leather
34. to create	(verb) to make something new; or invent something. A large mirror in a room can ____ the illusion of space.
35. to customize	(verb) to change the way something looks or works so that it is exactly what you want or need. You can use the Control Panel to ____ Windows.
36. to design	(verb) to decide how something will be made/work and look like, and often to make drawings of it The bride wore a cream silk dress that she ____ed herself.
37. to escape	(verb) to get free, the act of successfully getting out of a place or a dangerous or bad situation. Three people died in the fire, but John managed to ____ through the bedroom window.

38. to establish	(verb) to make something start to exist or start to happen. Mandela was eager to ____ good relations with the business community.
39. to figure out	(phrasal verb) to be able to understand something ; to solve a problem. It takes most people some time to ____ new software.
40. to grab	(verb) To hold something or someone, to carry, to hold on, to hang on. I didn't have time for breakfast this morning so I ____ a croissant on my way to work.
41. to hunt	(verb) to kill animals for food or for their skin or other parts, or for sport Crocodiles were ____ed and killed for their teeth.
42. to narrate	(verb) to tell a story, often by reading aloud from a text, or to describe events as they happen. Documentaries are often ____ed by well-known actors.
43. to recreate	(verb) to make something exist or happen again. They plan to ____ a typical English village in Japan.
44. to require	(verb) to need something or make something necessary. This game ____s total concentration.
45. to stretch	(verb) to pull something to make it longer or wider. I'll have to get these shoes ____ed.
46. to vote	(Verb) to express your choice or opinion, especially by officially writing a mark on a paper or by raising your hand or speaking in a meeting; nominated; elected. Over 55 percent ____ed Democrat
47. to yell	(verb) to shout something or make a loud noise, usually when you are angry, in pain, or excited. Don't ____ at me - I'm just telling you what she said!
48. typical	(Adjective) showing the characteristics of a particular kind of person or thing. I must look like the ____tourist with my shorts and my camera.
49. unless	(conjunction) except if, provided (that), suppose. ____ you call me to say you're not coming, I'll see you at the theatre.
50. while	(Conjunction) at the same time as; during the time that Your mum called ____ you were out